Beds + extra beds: 3 + 1

Quiet luxury in daylight

Interior design study · Apartment 3.3 · Vila Alžběta, Lednice
Cream linen, pale stone, cappuccino and muted sage on a bright sunny day.

Cream linen | Soft walnut | Pale stone | Sage | Satin bronze

L-shaped kitchen 186 × 125 cm. Sofa 220 × 95 cm. Beds including headboards are 220 cm long; the passage between them is 79 cm.

Timber windows: British green outside, light cappuccino inside, six panes. The continuation of the exterior façade is conceptual.

Living salon

The 220 × 95 cm sofa stands against the east wall. The L-shaped kitchen, with 186 × 125 cm runs, is in the northwest corner beside the terrace entrance. Pale linen, sage and natural stone preserve the original atmosphere.

Overall view of the salon and kitchen

Daylight reveals delicate stone grain, natural oak flooring and soft upholstery. Wine glasses and fresh flowers complete the atmosphere of a private apartment.

Dining area

A rectangular table with four sage chairs sits by the west window. The wooden base, flowers and globe light echo the salon materials. The LCD is on the solid partition away from the window.

Dining table by the window

A fresh green view, coffee and natural daylight emphasise the interior's lightness. Cream and cappuccino tones are complemented by soft sage and satin bronze.

Bedroom

The 180 × 220 cm double bed has its headboard against the west wall. The 100 × 220 cm single bed at the east wall has its headboard towards the salon. A 79 cm passage to the bathroom remains between them.

Dimensions including headboards

Double bed: 180 × 220 cm. Single bed: 100 × 220 cm.

The single mattress measures 90 × 200 cm. The passage between the beds is 79 cm.

Both views retain the same bed orientation. The LCD stays on the east wall above the single bed.

The elegant chest of drawers remains in the recess by the bathroom. Cream upholstery and sage throws follow the original design.

Bright bathroom

A shower in the left recess, one basin and a WC. Pale large-format stone is complemented by a subtle shower feature, backlit mirror and satin-finished taps.
