Beds + extra beds: 3 + 1

Cappuccino, tobacco and copper

Bright château-inspired elegance in the attic

Pale upholstery and tobacco tones are complemented by subtle yellow textiles and brushed copper. Herringbone oak parquet links the rooms.

2.04 Living area with kitchen and dining table
2.05 Bedroom with double and single bed
2.06 Bathroom with shower, basin and WC

Opposing longitudinal roof slopes begin approximately 170 cm above the floor and rise at 45°. Entrance doors have a light inner frame, a solid lower panel and divided upper glazing.

The plan on the right shows the new layout. Two sloping bedroom rooflights are added following subsequent clarification.

Cappuccino Tobacco Soft yellow Copper

Living salon

2.04 / Sofa facing the TV on the window wall; rectangular table below the window.

Dining room and kitchen

2.04 / Corner kitchen and dining table by the windows; living area opposite.

Bedroom full of light

2.05 / Double-bed headboard at the lower gable wall, single bed upper left, and two enlarged sloping rooflights.

A peaceful reading corner

2.05 / View towards the entrance: single bed and rooflights on the right, wardrobe on the left.

Glass, stone and copper

2.06 / Shower at the upper end of the bathroom, one basin at the left partition and a glass herringbone feature.

Bathroom from the other side

2.06 / WC against the longitudinal wall, opaque interior door and copper accessories.

Apartment entrance

2.04 / Garden entrance: part of the kitchen on the left, shoe cabinet with coat hooks on the right.

